

User Inputs starting and ending points for trip

Google Maps API is called for that route

Latitude and Longitude for each step is collected

Latitude and Longitude are converted into cities using google geocoding API

Weather API is called using city names

Weather for each city for the entirety of the trip is shown in the app

